Students may withdraw after 3 months but will receive no refund.

No fee refund will be made after five (5) business days from receipt by the director of the Graduate Studies Office of the application fee, degree (or certificate) audit fee, change of program fee, enrollment extension fee, or other fees for which charges were not included in tuition and for which specific services were performed for a student based on payment of the fee.

Refunds will be given only for materials that are in resalable condition. There will be a 20 percent restocking fee for returned materials.

See required application components list at the beginning of this document.)

Applicant Name (type or print)
Address
Student Number (Prior students of Global University)	GSO Office Code

Admission to Global University’s Graduate School of Theology to pursue a Doctor of Ministry degree is contingent upon the applicant meeting all admission requirements for the DMin program, including verifiable evidence of having completed at least three years of full-time Christian ministry (or its equivalent) prior to beginning studies in Global University’s DMin program. This requirement will be satisfied by submission of the following components.

1. An extensive account/history of your ministerial background and experience that includes the following elements:
  - a. A listing of each location in which you have served in ministry, including the name of the ministry, its location, the dates of service, a summary of the key activities and elements involved in that ministry, and the name(s) and contact information of individuals who can verify the length and nature of your ministry service.
  - b. Identification of what you consider to be the three greatest accomplishments of your ministerial experience, describing their impact(s) on those to whom you ministered and upon you individually.
  - c. Identification of the three greatest challenges or problems you have faced in your prior ministry service. Include a detailed response to the question: “How have these challenges/problems helped me to become more effective in ministry?”

Your name (as shown on the submission form) and the page number must appear at the top of each page, along with the words “Ministry Background” (see the following example).

Example: Alexander Johannes Wigglesworth	page 1	Ministry Background

It may also be satisfied by a copy of your current ministerial certification that includes the date, your name, your ministerial status, and the signature of one or more executive officers of the credentialing authority.
3. Your signed commitment to remain active in ministry throughout your tenure in Global University’s DMin program, as indicated by your signature below.

Check the following items to indicate your agreement/compliance with each:
<input type="checkbox"/> I hereby certify that the enclosed account/history of my ministerial background and experience is true and that it correctly represents my work in Christian ministry, including the name(s) and location(s) where I served, the date(s) of service, and key activities and elements of ministry for which I was responsible and/or in which I was personally involved.
<input type="checkbox"/> I certify that my ministerial credential status is current and that I am, indeed, in good standing as indicated by the verifying document(s) that are included with this Ministry Verification form.
